To the Voters in the Republican Primary

In submitting to you my candidacy for nomination by the Republican party, for the office of Sheriff and Assessor of Nye County, I wish to assure you first of my fealty to the party. In the second place I desire to make it plain to all of you that I am fully cognizant of the duties of the combined offices, and feel that I am capable of performing those duties, and will, if nominated and elected, perform them with full realization of all that the oath of office carries with it, its solemnity and its inviolable character.

The duty that is to be undertaken is to preserve the peace and enforce the law. It does not occur to me that the Sheriff should simply be the 'leader' in preserving peace, and calling upon private citizens to inconvenience themselves to perform public acts in the capacity of layman officials. The duty of the Sheriff is to himself perform these acts, assisted by his deputized forces, and I do not think that a Sheriff, who is paid to perform certain specitic duties, should admit weakness by asking citizens to neglect their business and their homes to perform for him certain acts for which he is paid from the public treasury.

As a public official, first as assemblyman, and later as commissioner. I have nothing of self-laudation to say, but am pleased to stand upon my official record, also that as a citizen, and in the latter connection. I would ask those who do not know me personally to inquire concerning me of the men who have been employed during the past fifteen years in this county by my companies which I have directed, as well as of business men with whom I have had

In conclusion, if nominated and elected, I assure you a resolute and businesslike administration.

AMUSEMENTS

WILLIAM HART'S LATEST AT THE BUTLER TODAY

William S. Hart, who comes to the Butler theatre today in "The Toll Gate," is said to have the most powerful dramatic role of his career as Black Deering, the bandit chieftain in the story which was written by Lambert Hillyer and himself.

Black Deering, leader of the ban-dits, decides to disband and quit. A rival refuses and leads the band into a trap, selling them out for "thirty pieces of silver." All are killed or captured. Deering escapes. He sets out to revenge himself. He meets the woman who has been deserted by the traitor and his better manhood keeps him from wreaking his revenge upon her in lieu of the real culprit. The latter meets his just deserts and Deering goes south and out of the hands of the law into, it hoped, a better life, his eyes open ed at last to the realization that there are good men and women in the world after all.

Anna Q. Nilsson and a fine cast of players are seen in the support. Mr Hart's famous Pinto pony is also
